Statement of Purpose and Structure

Created in 1976 under the Historical Resources Act, The Alberta Historical Resources Foundation is an agency of the Crown in right of the Province whose objective it is to assist in the preservation and interpretation of Alberta's heritage. Primarily this is done through the sponsorship of community based heritage initiatives, ranging from restoration of historical buildings, to pioneer cemetery rehabilitation, to research and publications work, to historic marker and plaque projects, to the revitalization of historic Main Streets and heritage districts. However, the Foundation has also been directly involved in the acquisition and restoration of a few endangered heritage buildings, and in the repatriation and stewardship of some notable collections of artifacts.

Financing for the Foundation is received in large part from Alberta Lotteries, although private donations and membership fees also contribute to the organization's work. Administration and technical assistance is provided to the Foundation Board of Directors by the Historical Resources Division of Alberta Culture & Multiculturalism. The Board, which consist of appointed citizens from a number of regions and professional backgrounds, adjudicates grants and develops overall organizational policy within the parameters of its legislated mandate. Major grants reviews are held twice per year, and the Board normally meets approximately six times in year in total in venues across the province. The Foundation also has public members who receive the organizations' quarterly publication The Cornerstone.

Message from the Minister

The 15-month period covered by this report was an extremely challenging one for the Alberta Historical Resources Foundation.

There was a major administrative streamlining, an expansion of public assistance programmes, and the quest for a multi-year renewal of the lotteries licence, source of the Foundation's primary funding.

We also started helping with special lotteries allocations for a number of major capital projects, thus delivering more funds for heritage projects at the community level.

Most of the monies formerly spent to support an independent administration, plus some of its cash surpluses, were channelled to additional local heritage projects, resulting in our strongest-ever infusion of Foundation assistance to the community.

In addition, our restructuring means a simpler "one window" approach for clients, and a more direct access to technical assistance and heritage conservation expertise.

I would like to thank Charlach Mackintosh, chairman of the board, the other directors and all their associates for their hard work.

Their extra effort has paid off well for Albertans, maximizing the use of lotteries dollars in the heritage field.

Chairman's Report

While the on-going activities of the Alberta Historical Resources Foundation have been presented to its members and the public in its quarterly publication The Cornerstone, this report is intended to offer a brief financial summary of the last year. Actually, this document will cover both the 1990 calendar year and the 1990/91 fiscal year ending in March, as we are now converting to the fiscal year format.

The fundamental organizational goal over the last year has been to refocus our efforts on the Foundation's heritage grants programmes, ensuring the maximum amount of our lotteries funding reaches community based heritage projects. Through some tough administrative restructuring, and reductions in both art touring and the Calgary office staff, and with strong cooperation from Alberta Culture & Multiculturalism, substantial administrative savings have been realized. After staff payouts and moving costs, the Foundation has successfully transferred over $250,000 per year from previous administrative budgets to increased public grants. This organization now has a smaller percentage of lotteries dollars lost to administrative overhead than virtually any comparable organization in the province.

During this 15 month period, commitments were made on approximately 180 projects under the heritage preservation grants programmes, for awards totalling $1.3 million. This represents a 30% monetary increase over 1989, and the largest such investment in the Foundation's history. These efforts included 97 historic resource preservation projects, 18 feasibility/planning studies, 5 pioneer cemetery restorations, 22 research endeavours, 19 heritage awareness projects, 25 historical publications and 4 other miscellaneous grants. Additional funding commitments for other programmes inlcuding provincial heritage organization assistance, historic districts, special grants, and Alberta Main Street Programme grants, totalling over $1.7 million.

Every corner of the province was reached by these awards, and there was a wide diversity of initiatives sponsored. Aside from the obvious cultural benefits to restore local landmarks and developing educational programmes and publications, it is important to recognize the strong economic rewards of these projects. Historic building restoration is often cheaper than new construction, and is labour intensive and environmental friendly (rather than new materials dependent). Through their intriguing character, renovated heritage buildings can stimulate additional business and generate new tourism that might not be felt otherwise.

The Alberta Main Street Programme, which assists in the revitalization of concentrations of commercial heritage buildings along small town streetscapes, continued to advance during this period with funding extensions given to the communities of the Crowsnest Pass, Cardston, Drumheller and Lacombe. A project in Claresholm also under way. Approximately $470,000 went into the Main Street Programme during this period, primarily as additional grants to the communities involved. A related programme for Historic Area Conservation provided $250,000 this year to fund the continuing work by the Crowsnest Pass Ecomuseum Trust, who are restoring and opening to the public the Coleman Journal Building and a part of the Bellevue Coal Mine. A modified area conservation programme with a commitment of $50,000 was also approved for the Town of Sexsmith.

Of the two heritage properties owned by the Foundation during this period, restoration work continued at the 1893 Dr. George Residence in Innisfail, the province's first community museum. This project is under the supervision of the Dr. George House Preservation Society. The Gushul Studio in Blairmore, which had been previously renovated by the Foundation, continued to serve the University of Lethbridge's Artist-In-Residence Programme.

A grant of $200,000.00 was also awarded the Ex Terra Foundation of Edmonton in support of The Dinosaur Project: China–Canada–Alberta–Ex Terra. This funding will go towards the final planning of an international exhibition of dinosaurs, some of which will be seen for the first time, that were excavated in reciprocal expeditions in China and Alberta over the last several years. It is intended to be the largest travelling exhibit of dinosaurs ever created, and should provide Alberta's prehistoric heritage with significant attention on the world stage.

The Foundation also agreed during this period to assist with the development of exhibits at the new Reynolds-Alberta Museum in Wetaskiwin and the Remington-Alberta Carriage Centre in Cardston, by acting as banker/administrator for special lotteries funding for these capital initiatives.

Another change that occurred during this period was a different approach of the Board to community relations. Rather than continuing the practice of annual conferences as a means to receive local input, this Board chose instead to bring their regular meetings out of the Calgary boardroom into the communities being served. During this period, sessions were held in Drumheller, Bonnyville, the Crowsnest Pass, Wetaskiwin, and Edmonton. Local projects were visited first hand and liaison occurred with several community groups and officials.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Alberta Historical Resources Foundation's financial supporters. At the end of this period, a new three year lotteries license was granted the Foundation with an award of $2.85 million annually (including $700,000 for the Alberta Museums Association and $100,000 for the Alberta Archives Council each year) plus capital projects funding for the Reynolds & Remington museum projects. While the Board had hoped for an expanded funding package that took into account the growth of community heritage projects across the province and the needs of the developing provincial heritage organizations, considering the economic climate of the times, this continuation of funding at the same level was appreciated. The Foundation also received a three year extension of its funding from the Heritage Canada Foundation towards the salary of the head of the Alberta Main Street Programme. Finally, I would like to thank the public members of the Foundation who subscribe to The Cornerstone, support local heritage initiatives in their areas, and many of whom make direct donations to support this organization's on-going work.

In reviewing the audited financial statements within this report, it is somewhat difficult to compare the 1990/91 figures with those of the 1989 calendar year. First, the latest statistics constitute a 15 month period, 25% longer than the 1989 column. Second, approximately $1 million in capital project monies were added this year, seriously impacting end calculations. Third, with new management, many of the accounting categories have been redefined and simplified. Finally, while specific grants commitments for the period are listed in the latter portion of the report, the audited financial statements by accounting practice are based solely on expenditures. Yet the statements do provide a general idea of the Foundation's financial status and evolution. Should you wish clarification on any aspects of the budget, please don't hesitate to contact the Foundation's Office.

OFFICE OF THE AUDITOR GENERAL

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Directors of The Alberta
Historical Resources Foundation

I have audited the balance sheet of The Alberta Historical Resources Foundation as at March 31, 1991 and the statements of revenue, expenditure and fund balances, reserves, and changes in financial position for the fifteen months then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In my opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Foundation as at March 31, 1991 and the results of its operations and the changes in its financial position for the fifteen months then ended in accordance with the disclosed basis of accounting as described in Note 2 to the financial statements.

Note 1 Authority

The Alberta Historical Resources Foundation operates under the authority of the Historical Resources Act, Chapter H-8, Revised Statutes of Alberta 1980, as amended.

In February 1990, the Foundation changed its fiscal year end from December 31 to March 31 to coincide with the Province of Alberta's fiscal year end.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies and Reporting Practices

(a) General

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles except that:

(i) the cost of historical assets is charged to expenditure on acquisition and shown at cost on the balance sheet. An offsetting credit to equity in historical assets is shown on the balance sheet for purchased and donated assets, and

(ii) costs incurred by the Capital Projects Fund to acquire and restore artifacts and to construct exhibits are charged to expenditure when incurred. The restored artifacts and exhibits will be donated to the Reynolds Alberta Museum or the Remington Alberta Carriage Centre.

(b) Capital Assets

Furniture and equipment are amortized at the rate of 15% per annum on a straight-line basis.

(c) Historical Assets

Donated historical assets are reflected in the financial statements at management's estimate of their fair market value on the date of donation.

Note 3 Change in Accounting Policy

In 1990, the Foundation changed its policy of not recording donated historical assets to recording them at management's estimate of their fair market value on the date of donation. This change has been applied retroactively and has increased historical assets and equity in historical assets reported as at December 31, 1989 by $1,116,936.

Note 4 Historical Assets

Historical assets consist of:

	March 31, 1991	December 31, 1989
Purchased assets	$ 504,643	$ 504,643
Donated assets	1,116,936	1,116,936
	$ 1,621,579	$ 1,621,579

Note 5 Capital Projects Fund

The Lottery Fund has provided grants to the Foundation to be used for the purpose of constructing exhibits and restoring artifacts at the Reynolds Alberta Museum and the Remington Alberta Carriage Centre.

Note 6 Edmund H. McDougall Fund

In 1989, the Foundation received a cash donation of $400,000 from the estate of Mr. Edmund H. McDougall. This donation can only be used for the upkeep, maintenance and display of historical assets.

Note 7 Reserves

The Foundation has established a general reserve from the Operating Fund for the purpose of retaining an ongoing funding capability.

The Foundation has also established a reserve for the Roger Soderstrom Fellowship in historical resources preservation.

The interest earned on all the reserve amounts is credited to operating revenue.

Note 8 Main Street Program

In 1987, the Foundation entered into an agreement with the Heritage Canada Foundation and the Department of Culture and Multiculturalism to administer the Alberta Main Street Program. Only those costs directly attributable to the program have been charged against program revenue. Other costs have been absorbed by the Foundation.

Note 9 Administration Costs

Certain salary, accommodation and other costs incurred in the administration of the Foundation have been borne by the General Revenue Fund of the Province of Alberta and are not reflected in these financial statements.

Note 10 Commitments

The Foundation had the following commitments in respect of grants approved as at March 31, 1991 but not disbursed because certain conditions were still to be met by the applicants.
